

WE ARE LOOKING FOR ARTISTS OF FILIPINO ORIGIN

The Centro Dramático Nacional is looking for Filipino or Filipino origin creators: mainly actors, musicians, singers, and dancers to take part in the documentary theater play Las últimas (The Last Ones), written and directed by Lucía Miranda, which will be performed at the Teatro Valle-Inclán.

The play will be performed in Spanish, Tagalog, and English, and the common language of the cast will be English. The members of the team will be asked to share their stories related to the Philippines and Spain with the playwright in order to create a documentary theater performance. The text will be a mixture of interviews conducted by the playwright outside the group, as well as stories and testimonies from the cast.
